2. Messrs. Saunders, Mason and Warner met with Kenneth Sprankle and Sam Crosby of the House Appropriations Committee. Among other matters, including correcting the transcript of our budget hearing and discussions of the request for new year funds, the matter of additional funds for the CIA building was discussed. Personnel figures were explained but no cost figures were furnished. It was explained that we felt it more appropriate that this matter not be taken up by this Congress but be deferred until next session. This view seemed to cause no concern and the matter was dropped at this point.
